

Self-evaluation questions to the Chapter VI

“The Role of Nationality and Culture in Conflict Management”

1. How do people from high context culture differ from low context culture? Name at least 4 differences.
2. Describe how do differ people belonging to monochronic time culture and into polychronic time culture. In your answer try to define each of these cultures. Present some examples.
3. Describe possible issues which should be avoided minimize conflicts related to different every day conceptions of time and space. Appoinments and related lead times for different cultures.
4. Name 4 main cultural dimensions based on the research of Geert Hofstede. Provide examples about different countries where these dimensions are explanatory and helping to understand national culture.